

ANZEA 2026 Evaluation’s Future Pathways

TIME	DAY 1 - MONDAY
8:30	REGISTRATION	Special Interest Group Hui Hui Māori (Great Hall), Pasifika Fono (Camelot Room), Tauivi (Ballantyne Room), Emerging Evaluators (Tower Room)
8:45
9
9:15
9:30
9:45
10
10:15
10:30
10:45
11	Mihi Whakatau
11:15
11:30	TEA BREAK
11:45	Opening remarks
12
12:15	KEYNOTE JAMES GOH
12:30
12:45
1
1:15	LUNCH
1:30
1:45
2	Malcolm Mersham - From Community Voice to Regional Intelligence: The Tairāwhiti Wellbeing Journey	Nikki Maw - Governing AI in Evaluation: What Do We Need in Place?	Amanda Hunter - Evaluation speed dating: find a mentor, find a friend, let's connect!	IGNITE SESSION Margaret Eastgate - Mana-enhancing MEL Upholding integrity through the Kakala Framework
2:15				Allan Mua Illingworth - Reclaiming evaluation: the Pacific Way
2:30				Seraseini Vulavou - Vanua-Centred Evaluation: Grounding Practice in identity, Relationships, and Place
2:45				Elle Archer - He Ara Kaunuku: Meeting What Actually Matters for Digital Equity
3	Afternoon tea
3:15
3:30	Brian Keogh - Vibe Termination Workshop. From Systems Vibe to Systems Rigour: Integrating Systems Theory Across the Full Evaluation Process	Dr Celestyna Galicki - Hidden gaps in the "community" - who do we leave out?	John Leonard - What happens when evaluation stays?	Paula White - Professional isolation in evaluation: ANZEA members' experiences, and ways to strengthen peer connection and community
3:45
4		Maciu Silai - Treating a nation, measuring what matters: Evaluation craft behind Fiji's big shift scabies trial	Sam Fernando - Beyond Delivery: Designing Social Contracts for Learning, Evidence, Impact, and System Changel. Interactive session	Dr Lauren Donnan - From Frontline Voices to System Shifts: Navigating Rigorous, Ethical Evaluation in Grassroots Services
4:15
4:30
4:45
5:00
5:15
5:30	Welcome Drinks
6
6:30

ANZEA 2026 Evaluation's Future Pathways

TIME	DAY 2 - TUESDAY
8:30	KEYNOTE Amy Gullickson
8:45
9
9:15
9:30
9:45
10
10:15
10:30	TEA BREAK
10:45
11	Julian King, Adrian Field, Judy Oakden, Nan Wehipeihana, Kate McKegg - AI in evaluation: an anthology of practice, ethics, and policy			Virginia Thomas - Navigating AI in Research Impact Evaluation: Holding On, Letting Go. Interactive session.
11:15
11:30
11:45
12
12:15
12:30				Demi Kirkpatrick - Knitting Fog: Making the Intangible Tangible When Explaining Our Value to Te Taiao
12:45
1	LUNCH and Branch Meetings
1:15
1:30
1:45
2	Maud Mukova-Moses - What counts as ‘locally led’? A rubric for human-centred evaluative judgement in MEL practice	Denise Bewsell - Shared lessons from the field	IGNITE SESSION Samanthi Bandara - Theorising Individualised Funding for Disabled New Zealanders: A Realist Evaluation Perspective Dr Paul Eme - Evaluating Integrated Youth Services in New Zealand: from Design to Early Insights – Methodological Learning from the IYS Evaluation Amanda Hunter - Addressing barriers to education and employment for refugee youth: Blending insights and system design to deepen impact. Q&A	Shaun Ackeroyd - Kaupapa Maori evaluation: Integrity, intelligence and culturally grounded practice and An indigenous approach to increasing immunisation	Libby Gawith - Writing family history
2:15
2:30
2:45	Catherine Leonard - The invisible machinery: what gets evaluated when we evaluate systems change		Ignite Session Huhana Moselen - Niho Taniwha in practice Oriwa Tamahou - Values in Action: Evidencing Ngā Matatika within Monitoring and Evaluation in a Māori led Research Programme Dr Lovely Dizon - Grounding Outcomes in Whānau Voice: Developing and Outcomes Framework at Visionwest Q&A	Seraseini Vulavou - “Embedding Learning in Systems: MEL to build Trust, Evidence, and Change”	Olivia Gregg - Our experience as emerging evaluators: Sharing growth opportunities and the strengths we bring to evaluation practice
3
3:15
3:30	AFTERNOON TEA
3:45	Tauyavu Tuvana - From Systems to Relationships: Building Locally Led MEL Practice in Tonga	Juvena Jalal Innovation by design: Optimising opportunities to use new methods, tools and approaches	Allan Mua Illingworth - Noda Ilakolako (Our Journey): Realities of Localised MEL within a Fijian Institution	IGNITE SESSION Jeph Mathias - with vodka in your veins and AI in your arsenal craft perfect evaluation mixes Hana Mori-Robertson - Beyond the Touchpoint: Mapping Family Violence Service User Journeys Stewart Graham - Beyond Metrics: Intelligence, Integrity, and Learning when evaluating Mission-Oriented research Q&A
4
4:15
4:30	Daniel Milosavljevic - What value? Whose value? Interactive session with Julian King, Jeph Mathias, and others	Marnie Carter - Seeing the system: Rethinking logic models through a systems lens	John Leonard- Establishing iwi-led evaluation	IGNITE SESSION Rebecca Thorby - Integrating Social Value into Decision-Making: Applying SROI within Complex Public and Community Systems Shreyas Rama - Co-designed, human-centric, AI software for evaluations Elaine More - Exploring an evaluation approach to place-based systems work aimed at reducing inequities in physical activity Q&A
4:45
5
7	Pre-dinner Drinks
7:30	Conference Dinner

ANZEA 2026 Evaluation's Future Pathways

TIME	DAY 3 - WEDNESDAY
9	Georgia Richards - RĀNUI 135: The impacts of community centred, relationship based youth practice for urban taiohi (A Hands for Impact Social Return on Investment (SROI) Report)	Nikki Maw - When AI Meets Evaluation: What Do We Protect?	Anne Dowden - Hey AI I want to do evaluation with New Zealand rangitahi. In the year of the Horse I can be an expert in anything but maybe skilled at ... well, not much.	Louise Were - Tukua Te Ringa Aroha Reclaiming evaluation for all of us
9:15
9:30
9:45
10	Adam Emirali - AI-assisted thematic analysis: rigorous method or confident guesswork?	Dr Sheri Zeng - What Counts as Credible Impact? Making Assumptions Visible in Evaluation Practice	Codey Bell - AI, Mana and Evaluation: Māori Health Pathways for Innovation, Integrity and Intelligence	Bev Tso Hong - Research decolonisation and plurality: A Chinese New Zealander's evaluation journey (so far)
10:15
10:30
10:45
11	TEA BREAK
11:15
11:30	IGNITE SESSION Celestyna Galicki - Qualitative hallucinations		Jeph Mathias - BRING AI INTO AN OUTCOME HARVESTING EVALUATION An Interactive DIY skill building session
11:45	Fiona Scott-Melton - Using personae to identify outcomes for different groups and inform SROI calculations
12	Kitty Dunkley - From data to difference: Choosing the findings that matter most Adrian Field - Building integrity in organisational practice – accreditation beyond evaluation Q&A
12:15
12:30	IGNITE SESSION Daniel Milosavljevic - If Value Is Emergent, What Are We Evaluating?
12:45	Libby J Gawith - Trusting the professionals and the unseen Jo MacDonald - Blurring the boundaries between research and evaluation: NZCER's longstanding national surveys of schools
1	Mel Atkinson - Beyond reporting: evidence for improvement Q&A
1:15
1:30	LUNCH
1:45
2
2:15	Plenary Panel Session. Reflections and provocations
2:30
2:45
3
3:15	Final Reflections and closing
3:30	Poroporoaki.					